ASKS ALEXANDRIA COURT CLERK FOR DOLLAR DIVORCE

Thought Price Same as Previously Paid for License.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Aug. 16.—"I want a divorce," said a Washington colored man, throwing down a $1 bill to C. Ashby Bladen, deputy clerk of the court, when he entered the courtroom today. Bladen explained that divorces are not issued promiscuously by him. The man then said he came to the same office sometime ago and paid $1 for a marriage license and thought the price was the same for a divorce. Later the man entered the office of Commissioner of Revenue, Calhoun and made an ineffectual effort to explain that he wanted a divorce. However, it sounded to the clerk like "wife," and a supplemental tax certificate was issued to his wife, which cost $5 cents. The man soon learned that there was a mistake and when last seen he was looking for a lawyer.

"Madame Marie" was the name registered on the police blotter, and when called, a colored woman appeared wearing long earrings, and claimed she was a palmist. She was charged by a colored man with telling fortunes without a license. There was no positive proof, although she had her Washington card advertising her business. Attorney Charles Henry Smith, who represented her, told the court the woman was willing to take but a license if released. The court agreed to this and her license cost her $300.

Briggs, a Baptist minister officiating. The couple were attended by the bride's sister, Miss Cecelia Cox and her father, Robert H. Cox. They left for a northern bridal trip and upon their return will reside in Silver Spring.

The store of Sands and Company, at the southwest corner of Patrick and Wilkes streets, was entered early this morning by burglars, who got away with merchandise valued at several hundred dollars. The goods taken included shoes, shirts, overalls, women's waists and hand bags. Entrance was effected by wrenching off the iron bars of a window. The robbery was discovered this morning.

THE VACUUM NATUROPATHIC (Nerve) TREATMENT

Is a cure for INFANTILE PARALYSIS and CEREBRO SPINAL MENINGITIS which are with us again.

These diseases are not caused by Bugs (Germs) nor are they contagious nor are they like other acute ailments, yield readily to our rational methods of cure. Example: Miss C., age 11, about July 9th, 1921, contracted a cold which was followed by a high fever and on July 19th was paralyzed in right leg. Family physician called in and pronounced it a case of infantile paralysis, reporting same to Health Department, and attended the case until July 28, on which date we were called. On examination found paralysis was complicated with cerebro spinal meningitis. Gave favorable prognosis, saying she would be all right with two weeks treatment.

RESULTS—The third day patient had fair use of limb while in bed. Massage was improved. Treatments given daily, on fourth visit found patient able to walk with a little assistance. Seventh day, able to walk around room without assistance; meningitis absent. Tenth day, walking alone. We remarked to the parents, "When you were informed that she would be all right within two weeks you did not believe it, did you?" They said, "No, we thought you were talking, trying to console us, for our physician told us it would be two, three years, and like, 'she would never crawl again.' Now this is nothing unusual with our methods of treatment, and had we been called at the onset of the disease, one treatment in all probability would have been sufficient. The results in all acute ailments, whether paralysis, pneumonia, pleurisy or meningitis, are equally as effective. Chronic cases are surely yielded, but they require much longer time and treatment.

NOW HEAR THIS IN MIND.
No matter what ailment you have had, our methods, while being highly scientific, are rational, natural—the most potent and safe. Prof. H. N. D. Parker, M. D. C., has known cases where the paralysis occurred when Druggists infant was after 27 years duration practically cured. You can have the evidence to support the above statements and your physician have no remedy, much less a cure. Read it again.

Mrs. Josephine Dove, who first entered the matrimonial sweepstakes at the age of 16 wound up her experiences to date in Equity Court yesterday with the scope at four—four marriages and four divorces.
Her fourth divorce, from her fourth husband, Charles B. Dove, a tinsmith with a shop at 1224 H street northeast, was granted by Justice Siddons.
Mrs. Dove's first husband, who was 29 years old when they were married, got the first divorce on the ground of desertion. Mrs. Dove won the second, husband No. 2 having been found guilty of misconduct. The third spouse, John Walsh, scored the third separation by charging the then Mrs. Walsh with misconduct and naming Dove as co-responsible.
Mrs. Dove was the plaintiff in the latest action.

NEGRO ARRESTED AS ROBBER'S AID

Charged with being implicated in the robbery of George R. Blake, an automobile dealer of Indianapolis, along the Speedway on July 29, James Fry, colored, 24 years old, 2520 Sixth street northwest, was arrested last night by Policeman Antonella, of the Eighth precinct, and turned over to headquarters, where a technical charge of robbery was placed against him.
Fry, police say, was with William N. Bowie, colored, 34 years old, 1800 Eleventh street northwest, after the taxi in which he had been riding broke down at the south end of the Highway Bridge. The two negroes, Blake told police, offered to drive him to a downtown hotel, but instead they sped to the Speedway, where, after robbing him of a $1,500 diamond ring, a $150 watch and $50 in cash, they forced him to leave the machine, at the point of a gun. Bowie was arraigned by Detective Sergis Pratt, Darnell, Jones and Jackson about a month ago, when the money and jewelry were recovered.

The cabinet includes the two presidents of the major political parties, as well as the president of the chamber of deputies, Ruiz, who becomes minister of war and marine.

WOMEN IN HOMES AND SOCIETY
Countless women devote their whole lives to their homes, while others are in the business world, or find happiness only in society. Whether you are a home woman, a business woman, or a society woman, you know how hard it is to "drag along" day after day, suffering agonies, caused by some female development that has developed from overtaxing your strength. The natural restorative for such ailments is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for nearly half a century has been considered a standard remedy for women's ills.—Adv.
